

Keeping the Promise

We Celebrate Toby's Life One Year Later

On the 1st anniversary of Toby's passing we are reminded of the promise made to work toward the goal of finding a genetic marker for canine epilepsy so a screening test can be developed. We are grateful for all of your support and want to renew our commitment to keeping the promise alive. We can't do it without your continued support. Please visit our website to learn more about how you can help by giving blood, making a donation and volunteering.

At this holiday season we give thanks for you and the time we had with Toby!
MERRY CHRISTMAS and HAPPY HOLIDAYS!
